

THE BLAIRMORE ENTERPRISE

VOL. XIV, NO. 2.

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA. THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1922.

$2.50 YEARLY

The Mass public are awaiting the action, if any, of the Attorney-General in connection with the matters referred to recently by an open letter from Mr. J. W. McDonald, K.C., of Macleod. It is noticed that Mr. McDonald has not seen necessary to retract any of the charges made, and that so far the department of attorney-general, in the interests of the province a large, has not undertaken to appoint the necessary commission of enquiry, which the people should demand.

Business travels so slow that poverty soon overtake it.

ORIGINALLY PROPOSED SITE CHOSEN FOR COURT HOUSE

At last it has definitely been decided by the Department of Public Works that the new court house and Alberta Police headquarters will be erected on the site originally proposed, i.e., off Victoria Street East, between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues, six lots offered gratis to the government by the Town of Blairmore for the purpose.

In this connection, the following correspondence speaks for itself: "Blairmore, Alberta, February 10th, 1922.

Deputy Minister,
Department of Public Works,
Edmonton, Alberta.

Dear Sir:
Re Police Headquarters Building,
Blairmore, Alberta.

A great deal of controversy has taken place here as to this building, especially as to location, as well as to whether the building is to be proceeded with as soon as the weather will permit or not. Should I not be trespassing on the rights of the department, will you kindly advise me the settled location and when the building is expected to be started; also when it is expected to be finished.

Yours respectfully,
L. H. PUTNAM,
Town Solicitor.

In reply to the above, Mr. Putnam on Monday received the following: "Edmonton, Alberta, February 24th, 1922.

Loring H. Putnam, Esq.,
Barrister, Etc.,
Blairmore, Alberta.

Sir:
In reply to your letter of the 20th instant, addressed to the Deputy Minister, I beg to advise you that it has been decided to erect the Police Building at Blairmore on the East Site, the contract has been awarded and construction will be commenced almost immediately.

Your obedient servant,
RICHARD P. BLAKEY,
Provincial Architect.

Also in the same connection, the Secretary-Treasurer on Monday received the following, dated Edmonton, Saturday, February the 24th:

Dear Sir:—I shall be glad if you will make arrangements immediately to give title to the property which the Town of Blairmore are turning over to the Government for the purpose of erection of Police Building. I understand that it is the intention to turn over to the Department five lots. Contract has been awarded for the erection of this building, and we are anxious to proceed with the construction immediately.

Your obedient servant,
RICHARD P. BLAKEY,
Provincial Architect.

To this the Secretary-Treasurer on Monday replied as follows:

Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter of the 24th instant, re lots for Police Headquarters site, the Town of Blairmore has much pleasure in handing you herewith transfer of lots 5, 6, 7, 8 and 10 inclusive, in Block Eight, Plan of Blairmore 3319-1, in favor of the Provincial Government of Alberta. I am also enclosing D. C. T., which I would ask to be returned as soon as the necessary registration has been effected.

The above will tend to ease the minds of the many local prophets.

The contract for the new building has been let to Messrs. Watson & Abernethy, of Calgary, and the contract price is $29,740. The sub-contract for plumbing and heating has been let to Messrs. Ross Snyder & Co., of Calgary.

We understand that so far but one contract in connection with the new building has been awarded locally—that to Mr. S. Egan for hauling materials to site.

LAST REGULAR MEETING OF OLD COUNCIL

The council for 1922 finished their term of office with a regular meeting held on Monday night, at which Mayor McLeod and Councillors McVey, J. Angus McDonald, Alex. Moroney and Owen Morgan were present. The minutes of meeting held February the 12th were read and approved and the following accounts were duly passed for payment, subject to approval of committees: R. Crayford $28.90, W. Patterson $3.00, Petty Cash $16.96, Northern Electric Co. $49.58, Canadian General Electric Co. $48.03, S. Ennis $17.30, D. Walker $5.00, Blairmore Enterprise $17.30, Metals Limited $76.16.

Correspondence in connection with certain applications for allowances under Widowed Mothers' Protection Act were read, also a letter to the Secretary-Treasurer from the provincial architect asking for transfer of lots from Town to Government for Court House site.

A number of local folks journeyed to Hillcrest on Tuesday night to hear the lecture on "Success, what it is and how to attain it," delivered by Rev. Thomas Powell, superintendent of Methodist Missions.

Just as someone had suggested that the new court house should be built on kinks, so that it could be moved to the seats of crime word came through that the department of public works had at last ceased "hating between two opinions."

UNION CHURCH ANNIVERSARY BODY OF COLEMAN ENGINEER FOUND

Dr. George W. Kerby, principal of Mount Royal College, Calgary, will be the special speaker at the anniversary services to be held at the Union church on Sunday next, in celebration of the union of Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist congregations of Blairmore.

Dr. Kerby is one of the ablest speakers in the Dominion and has been recently honored by an invitation to attend the national conference on "Education and Citizenship," to be held in Toronto on April 2nd to 8th, being one of twenty-nine prominent Canadians thus honored.

Dr. Kerby will address a young people's service at 11 a.m., the Sunday school at 2:30 p.m., and evening service at 7:30. Special arrangements are being made to accommodate the large audiences during the day, and special music will be rendered by the choir on each occasion.

The collections for the day will go towards the building fund and a special appeal is being made with a view to raising on the anniversary occasion the sum of five hundred dollars. All members and adherents are requested to help towards this end.

On Monday night, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Kerby will lecture on "The Educational Challenge." For the lecture an admission ticket is being sold for fifty cents.

A little girl whose father was a commercial traveller sat on the porch holding a kitten and, creeping close to her, her mother heard this: "Kitty, I know your mamma and I know your little brothers and sisters, but I ain't ever seen papa"—then after a brief pause—"I spee' he must be a travelling man."

As workmen for the International Coal Co. were yesterday engaged at a point near the Crow's Nest River, just east of the ruins of the machine shop, which was destroyed by fire on November the 30th, they noticed the body of a man laying in the water. The police were immediately notified and the body was recovered and removed to Ferguson's undertaking parlors, where it was soon identified as that of William Machin, whose disappearance on the morning of the machine-shop fire led the authorities to believe that he met death in the flames.

It now transpires that when the pump ceased working at the time of the outbreak of the fire, Engineer Machin rushed to the intake from the river and while trying to locate the trouble there fell into the waters and was drowned.

The remains will likely be buried at Coleman today.

Machin was but a young man and leaves a young wife and couple of small children. He was a member of Coleman I.O.O.F. Lodge.

Albert Costigano, who recently met with the loss of both eyes in an explosion in one of the workings of Greenhill mine, returned last week from Calgary, where he has been undergoing treatment. Albert intends leaving shortly for his old home in Italy, and to this end local miners and friends have voluntarily subscribed the funds necessary to pay the cost of the trip. To make the trip, it is necessary that a guardian accompany him.

The golf shooting season will probably open next week.

Growing Power Of The West

The Bill introduced in Parliament providing for a redistribution of representation by Provinces in the House of Commons, based on the census of 1921, is significant of the trend of political power in Canada, not in a party sense, but in a broad national way and because of the effect which must inevitably follow in national economic policies.

Less than twenty years ago the Canadian House of Commons consisted of 114 members, of which 116 were elected from the five Provinces lying to the east of the Great Lakes, while the territories west thereof returned 13 members. That is to say, the voice of the West in the Federal Parliament was weak, almost insignificant.

The next House of Commons will have a membership of 245, of which number 176 will represent the five Eastern Provinces, while the West will elect 69.

Within the short space of twenty years, therefore, a marked change has taken place. Owing to increase in population the membership of the House has risen from 114 to 245, an increase of 131. Notwithstanding this fact Eastern representation has fallen from 116 to a loss of twenty members. These 20 members have been added to the West and in addition the whole 31 of additional membership, a gain for the West of 51 as against a loss for the East of 20, or an actual gain for the West in voting power in the House of Commons of 71.

The following table reveals at a glance the change which has taken place within two decades:

| | 1902 | Next House |
|----------------------|------|------------|
| Ontario | 32 | 52 |
| Quebec | 35 | 55 |
| Nova Scotia | 20 | 14 |
| New Brunswick | 11 | 11 |
| Prince Edward Island | 5 | 4 |
| | 196 | 176 |
| Manitoba | 7 | 17 |
| Saskatchewan | — | 21 |
| Alberta | — | 16 |
| North-West Territory | 4 | — |
| British Columbia | 6 | 14 |
| Yukon | 1 | — |
| | 18 | 68 |

As illustrating the growth of the West, it is interesting to note that whereas in 1902 representation in the House of Commons was based on one member for every 22,300 people, the unit in the next House will be one member for every 38,252. The West's remarkable gain in representation has, therefore, been achieved notwithstanding more than a fifty per cent. increase in the unit figure.

Occasionally some thoughtless and impatient individual, feeling that the West is not receiving full justice at the hands of a Parliament having a large majority of Eastern representatives, advocates the secession of the West from Canada and the setting up of a separate Dominion. Once in a while such action is urged at a public meeting or convention. Such views, however, have never found any general acceptance, nor are they at all likely to receive the approval of more than a handful of individuals.

Twenty years, fifty years, a fully century, may seem a long time in the life of an individual, but they are a passing moment in the life of a nation. Any injustice which may at present be suffered by the West owing to present economic policies in vogue in Canada are certain to disappear with the increase of political power coming to the West following each decennial readjustment of representation in the House of Commons. Viewed in terms of a nation's life, this shifting of political power is taking place with unusual rapidity in Canada, and with the adoption of a new and vigorous immigration policy—for which the West should strive with all its might—another generation or two will see the West on terms of equality with the East as far as influence in determining national policy is concerned.

There is no need for hasty or revolutionary action, which would be most ill-advised. Canada's prestige at the world, and strength both at home and abroad, rests upon remaining a united confederation. East and West derive advantages the one from the other; one is the complement of the other; each would be weaker without the other.

The East may be making a mistake at present in not giving greater consideration to Western needs and problems. There should unquestionably be a greater willingness by the East to accept fair compromises in policy, but that is no reason for ill-considered words or action in the West. Within the past twenty years the West has been recognized and received consideration unworried of at the beginning of the century. Growing political power has enhanced it. It will continue to demand and secure such recognition and consideration, to an even greater extent during the next decade.

French and British Policy

France Seeks Security But Britain Wants Restoration of Europe

The San Francisco Argument explains the difference in the attitude of France and Great Britain toward Germany by saying that France, above all, seeks security, while Britain above all, seeks markets, also a balance protecting her in her domination of India. This is hardly a fair statement of the case. The object of the French occupation of the Ruhr is not security, but reparations. Her right to reparations may be secured, and she may succeed in collecting them in that way. But occupation of the Ruhr will not increase her security unless she intends to hold the district for all time to come.

On the other end, Great Britain is undoubtedly seeking restoration of markets. But how? By the industrial and economic restoration of Europe, which will benefit, not only Europe, but the whole world. It is this selfishness, it is selfishness, of a very enlightened kind. It is based upon the principle that British prosperity depends, not upon the ruin or paralysis of other countries, but upon their revival.—Toronto Globe.

STORMY WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The stormy, blustery weather which we are having between February and March is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them in the house. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their little bodies. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and in accordance with the health of the baby in good condition till the brighter days come along. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Good Seed For Manitoba

May Establish Central Elevator or Seed Warehouse to Store Pure Seed

Establishment of a central elevator or warehouse for the collection and distribution of pure seed is being considered by the Provincial Government. The scheme under discussion also will necessitate organization of a staff of inspectors.

Operations of the proposed plan neither will be one of profit to the province nor will it create any deficit, it is held. The cost of seed to the farmer will be based on actual cost to the province.

During the summer inspectors will examine crops in growth, selecting seed grain under the best conditions. It is then will be matured at the central warehouse, where it may be purchased in the fall by farmers for early spring seeding.

The move has been fostered by the Manitoba Seed Growers' Association.

Strained Muscles, Sprains, Can be Treated Quickly

In minor sprains, the muscle is strained a little, and all that is needed is a vigorous rubbing with Nerriline. This draws the extra blood away, and permits the muscle to return to its normal condition. The supple Nerriline enjoys a reputation for its penetrating power; it strikes deeply, that is why it removes deep seated pains, and fixes up folks that have Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuralgia and Sciatica. "YOUR TEETH"

THE THIRD HAND

By Ben Proctor McGee, M.D., D.D.S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is very amusing to see a couple of foreigners, or even home folks sometimes, waving and gesturing wildly with their hands in an ordinary conversation. We don't seem to consider that it is up to the hands to help with the talk and do a little of the mouth's work occasionally; the mouth certainly does enough work that belongs to the hands.

From our earliest infancy to tottering old age we use the mouth as an armory workshop, testing laboratory, carry-all, thread-cutting, pencil sharpener, lubricator, wrench, vice, weapon of offense and defense—and for unnumbered other duties in addition to its proper work.

In fact the mouth is commonly used as a third hand.

This means an enormous amount of wear and tear—upon the teeth, gums and jaws—that does not come from chewing alone.

Almost everything that is put into the mouth has infection of some kind upon it.

The very fact that we suffer so little from this source of the mouth is shown that the saliva must be a germ-killer to a very considerable extent, but the saliva does not always protect us from infection from these outside sources.

Many very serious conditions arise from the "third hand" use of the mouth. In addition to infection the unreasonable strain upon the teeth often breaks the enamel and occasionally breaks off whole teeth, fillings are loosened, decay is encouraged and the irritation to the lips, cheeks, gums and tongue favors cancer.

The habit of biting threads instead of cutting them causes a chronic inflammation of the membrane that covers the roots of the teeth and will cause the loss of the teeth. It is much more comfortable—and cheaper—to buy scissors.

In fact the value of the mouth is so great that it is poor economy to abuse it.

The most obstinate corns fail to resist Halloway's Corn Remover. Try it.

Radio For Police

In keeping with modern police forces, the Ottawa police commissioners are considering the installation of "high power" receiving set in the city police station to enable police officers to receive all police news broadcasted from New York, Chicago, Detroit and other large centers where such systems have been established, and to receive recently. Under the scheme outlined local police news for outside points would be broadcasted from local radio broadcasting stations.

ENDORSES OUR COMMENT

The Pincher Creek Echo, in its issue of February 23rd, endorses our sentiments relative to the supply of rink tickets purchased by the Lethbridge arena from a Montreal printing house thusly:

"The Echo heartily endorses the comment, 'Small fry' is a very good term for persons who print their local papers to do all the boosting, keep up the heavy end of interest, to carry the expenses of publishing all items of interest and then when the job printing order is to be placed the 'small fry' do a great stroke of business by giving the order to a Montreal firm who haven't spent a cent on printing nor publishing matter locally and can thereby cut a little on the local printer's price."

"Small fry" are persons who have a one-sided vision, and should be invited to ramble off to Montreal, Toronto, or some large centre with their next item of news concerning their pet hobby.

It's pretty nearly up to everyone to play an all-round square game or step down."

UNUSUAL PHENOMENON

Many people saw a very peculiar and unusual phenomenon in the south-western sky about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. There were two rainbows around the sun, visible almost all the way around and about twenty degrees apart. Up above, and laying "on its back" on the outer of these concentric rainbows was a third. Two rainbows apparently laying on top of the third one and with its ends pointing up into the sky, made the sight a remarkable one and one that is probably seldom seen. It was probably a reflection on the clouds of the second one on which it rested. The whole sky at the same time had a very peculiar tinge of color.—North Sydney Herald.

CHRISTMAS

We asked a school boy to write us an editorial item appropriate to the Christmas time. This is what he wrote:

THE NATIVITY

Mary brot out her first youngster and wrapped him in swallow's clothes and laid him in a stall in a stable, 'cause there was no room for him in the bar.

And there was in the same country shepherds living in the meadows, keeping an eye so that no bandits would steal a sheep.

And, lo, a girl with wings flew down and electric lights glowed everywhere. She said: "Don't be scared for I bring you lots of good news so everybody was glad! 'A baby is born that will save you. You'll find the baby over there in a stable, but watch out the cows don't hook you!" And they all went over and found Mary and Joe and the baby.

Mr. Editor, this is not very well wrote, 'cause mother is ironing and shaking the table.

Thank you, Mr. Editor.

Mrs. R. Cosgrove, of West Coleman, is seriously ill at her mother's home on the McCulloch ranch, near Lundbreck. Son Hugh is able to be around again.

Kindly note that the attractive card announcements of the Hiltner Pythian dance are the work of The Enterprise job department. No order is too large, or none so small, and no rush too great for us.

BLAIRMORE ELIMINATES

INTERMEDIATE CHAMPIONS

The Blairmore hockey team put another team out of running for the Allan Cup series on Monday and Tuesday nights of this week. The Calgary Hustlers intermediate champions of the province, had the right to challenge the senior champions for the Allan Cup provincial finals and were beaten here on Monday night by a score of 5-3 and again at Calgary on Tuesday night by a 2-1 score, the local puck chasers winning the round 10 to 4.

The team are now in Vancouver and will play the Young Liberals there tomorrow night and again on Monday or Tuesday. If they are successful in beating them, they will go east, probably to Winnipeg for the remainder of the games.

The boys have a most enviable record this year. They won eight of their nine league games and also won the four elimination games. They have 88 goals to their credit, while only 41 have been registered against them in the thirteen games.

Scoring averages to date for the thirteen games are as follows:

| Name | G | A | Pts |
|-----------|----|---|-----|
| Rennick | 27 | 8 | 35 |
| Mackie | 19 | 5 | 24 |
| Turner | 11 | 7 | 18 |
| Pruden | 10 | 4 | 14 |
| Reidick | 11 | 1 | 12 |
| Veprava | 3 | 6 | 9 |
| LeVasseur | 4 | 1 | 5 |
| Harvey | 3 | 1 | 4 |

THE PROBLEMS OF LIFE

A little girl of six years sat looking thoughtfully out of the window of her home the other day. Her mother questioned her as to the cause of her seriousness.

"Oh," she replied, "I was just thinking that when I grow up to be a big lady I'm go'n' to get married and have three children."

Her mother, although very much surprised, was also amused.

"You will be very fortunate indeed," replied the fond parent.

The little miss grew silent and thoughtful again. Finally she said, "But, of course, you can never tell, mother. I might marry a bachelor."

AN EARLY CALIFORNIA

Just think of it, on Sunday, February 18th, dandelions were being picked around Blairmore; and on Wednesday, February 21st, a full-grown lady took a plunge in what she thought was a California public swimming pool.

The question has arisen as to whether it would be good business to build any further additions to the central school building. To the average economist it does not seem advisable, but rather start right now on the foundation for a permanent fire-proof structure of four room capacity, instead of two as now proposed. One thing to be considered is that it would be easier to raise $20,000 for a modern fire-proof structure than $12,000 for an addition to a 'frail' frame building that has practically outlived its usefulness.

Rev. Thomas Powell, superintendent of Methodist missions, delivered his popular lecture, "Success and How to attain it," at the Blairmore Community hall on Monday night.

While waiting for our soup to be served, we read that "there are fifty miles of hair on the average woman's head." And we just prayed that every mile of it would stay just where it was.

Coleman Oddfellows have purchased the Eagle Block. The ground floor is occupied by C. S. Ouimet as a general furnishing store. The upstairs is very well arranged for lodge purposes, having a spacious and well lighted hall and two ante rooms, also fully equipped kitchen. The hall is occupied pretty well every night of the week, most of the fraternal and other organization of Coleman meeting there.

Provincial export liquor houses closed yesterday.

"La Jenesse"—Comde—by Nellie Scott.

It isn't enough to say in our hearts that we like a man for his ways.

It isn't enough that we fill our minds with pens of silent praise.

Nor is it enough that we honor him; as our confidence upward mounts—

It's going right up to the man himself and telling him so, that counts.

If a man does a work you really admire don't leave a kind word unsaid in fear that to do so might make him vain and cause him to "lose his head."

But reach out your hand and tell him; "Well done," and see how his gratitude swells.

It isn't the flowers we strew on the grave—it's the work to the living that tells.

Anon, Independence.

A very interesting case is at present occupying the time of the magistrate's court at Coleman. Harry Antel, drayman, is accused by one Steve Farion of stealing 24 cases of whiskey. In making the charge, it appears that Farion tables a frank admission of guilt in having in his possession such a quantity of liquor, contrary to law.

A charge was recently laid against James Cuthbertson, of Nanton, under the Amusement Tax Act in connection with a dance given by the Sons of Scotland. Hearing was given before Magistrate Gresham, of Blairmore, and at the request of the attorney-general's department the information was withdrawn. Following the withdrawal of the case the $8.00 surplus from the dance was invested in groceries for a needy Scotch family in the vicinity.

Paddy Corrigan, of Maple Leaf, was in town on Monday. Paddy usually hibernates about December 15th and his reappearance usually heralds the arrival of the first robin and spring.

We were in Coleman a few nights since, and were informed that the Coleman park was shortly to be moved to Blairmore, where more material and money would be available for its upkeep.

GAINED 65 POUNDS!

"Five years ago when I was first married I had wonderful energy.

I could be on the go all day long without feeling the least bit fati-gued. I had a great appetite and could eat anything. I weighed

145 pounds. I used to be busy every minute of the day and when the day was over I could go to bed and never wake up once during the night. Thirteen months ago my first baby was born. After that my energy seemed to leave me.

I was tired all the time. I had to force myself to do my household duties. Instead of being a pleasure as formerly, these duties became a real task. I lost all desire for food and nothing would tempt me. I had to make myself eat. I would go to bed at night and toss from side to side for hours at a time. After a while I would doze off only to find that I had been sleeping for ten or fifteen minutes. Naturally when morning came, not having sleep, I started the day completely tired out. I was shaky and nervous. The least noise would startle me and make my heart race along. I could see that my husband was worried. I was losing weight every week and had already lost 64 pounds. I tried all kinds of tonics, but they didn't help me. One night, a night I shall never forget because it started me on the way to health and happiness again, my husband brought in a bottle of Carnal. A

THE PASS FOURTEEN YEARS AGO

(The Frank Paper, 1908)

August 6—The most disastrous conflagration Western Canada has ever known completely wiped out the city of Fernie on Saturday afternoon last. Property loss estimated at three million dollars. Thirty lives known lost. Insurance about $1,500,000.

Mar Ling, otherwise known as Wah Sing, a Chinese laundryman of Blairmore, was murdered on Friday afternoon last by his brother Mar Hung. The killing was done following a dispute over a sum of $150. After committing the deed, Mar Hung coolly sat down and awaited the police to arrest him. He was arrested by Sgt. Hasslett, of the mounted police force. Hung was given preliminary hearing and ordered committed for trial. J. W. McDonald, of Macleod, appears for the defence, while W. M. Campbell, of Macleod, is prosecuting attorney.

Since the Coleman Miner was first established, the individual employed by its owner as editor has made what has seemed to be a studied effort to work up a newspaper fight with The Frank Paper.

The report of the Hillcrest Company for July shows the shipments for that month as upwards of 15,000 tons, indicating a steadily increasing output.

Changes in the coal company staff went into effect the first of the month. Sam McVicar retires as mine manager and is succeeded by J. A. Church. Charles Chestnut will again be in charge of the inside work.

Michael Murphy and his bride, formerly Miss Ethel McLeod, returned last week end from the east, whither Mr. Murphy had been called through the illness of his sister. It was a sad mission, as the sister did not live until her brother reached home.

August 13—Vice-President Budd, of the Rocky Mountains Cement Co., states that he will be able to put out cement on the market at 75 cents per barrel less than it now costs. A saving of about $187,000 in the cost of Spokane bridges, if built of cement, is promised by Mr. Budd. The Blairmore plant will have a daily capacity of one thousand barrels.

The village of Blairmore is considering two propositions for water service, one advanced by Robert Lake, of Calgary, who proposes bringing water in from York creek, west of town. The other proposition has been made by Mr. W. J. Budd, of the Rocky Mountains Cement Co.

Assistance for the fire sufferers at Fernie is pouring in and in the last few days some $50,000 in voluntary subscriptions have been received by the relief committee. Temporary homes are rapidly being established and a request has been made to Mr. Thomas A. Ellison to send a representative to Fernie with a view to adopting the inventors' concrete houses.

George Cruickshank, deputy postmaster, returned Sunday from spending his holidays in Manitoba.

A girl baby arrived Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McVicar.

Mar On, the Blairmore merchant, was among the first to contribute to the relief of the Fernie fire sufferers. He donated and shipped a dozen shirts, a dozen suits of underwear, half a dozen blankets, half a dozen pairs of boots and a dozen pairs of stockings.

A son was born on Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham, of Coleman.

J. A. McDonald, the well known insurance man, joined the ranks of the benedictines on Tuesday last, being united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Lillie Adlam. Rev. T. M. Murray performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Lundbreck.

The public schools re-open on August 31st. There will be no change in the Frank-teaching staff.

A TAXATION LULLABY

Tax the people, tax with care,
To help the multi-millionaire;
Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax the dog, and tax his howl.
Tax the hen, and tax her eggs,
And let the bloomin' mudsill beg;
Tax his pig, and tax his squeal;
Tax his boots run down at heel;
Tax his horses, tax his lands,
Tax the blisters on his hands,
Tax his plow, and tax his clothes,
Tax the rag that wipes his nose;
Tax his house and tax his bed,
Tax the bald spot on his head;
Tax the ox, and tax the ass,
Tax his "Henry," tax the gas,
Tax the road that he must pass,
And make him travel on the grass.
Tax his cow, and tax his calf,
Tax him if he dares to laugh;
He is but a common man,
So tax the cuss just all you can.
Tax the laborer but be discreet,
Tax him for walking on the street;
Tax his bread, and tax his meat,
Tax the shoes clear off his feet;
Tax the payroll, tax the sale,
Tax all his hard-earned paper kale;
Tax his pipe and tax his smoke,
Teach him government is not a joke.
Tax their souls beyond the clouds,
Tax all business, tax the shops,
Tax their income, tax their socks;
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed;
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight if you dare;
Tax them all, tax them well,
Tax them to the gale of hell;
But close your eyes so you can't see,
The coupon clipper go Tax free.

IN THE LEGISLATURE

One of the most important acts of the session was introduced during the past week by Hon. Mrs. Faribay, member of the government without portfolio. This act makes provision for certain procedure through the courts whereby the father of an illegitimate child may be made responsible for the maintenance of the mother of such children for a certain period, and for the maintenance of the child until the age of 16. The bill is called an Act for the Protection of Children of Unmarried Parents, and makes provision for administration of the act under the superintendents of neglected children, who may be appointed guardians of illegitimate children under certain conditions. The act also provides for the summoning of fathers of such children, and for the issuing of affiliation orders against such fathers for the care and maintenance of mother and child under certain conditions. The act received its second reading on Thursday following a short address by Mrs. Faribay.

THE TOWN COUNCIL OF STRATHMORE

Alberta, makes a monthly grant to an hotel of $25 per month in return for the conveniences afforded by the hotel to the public. We at one time advocated similar consideration for the hotels in Blairmore, but as the majority of the council could not see eye to eye with us on the matter, it never materialized.

At Coleman, Samuel Atcheson replaces Principal Manthorn. At Blairmore Miss Ida Ross replaces Mrs. H. Sellars, formerly Miss Collinson.

CHAPTER VII
The Old Trail

For another mile Wade followed the main road and then diverged sharply to the left into what was known as the old, or upper, trail. This had formerly been the valley road until made dangerous by a wash-out a year or two previous. In the following spring the wash-out had been partially repaired, but the going was still so rough that the new road was widened and had been used by preference ever since. The old trail, however, was nearly four miles the shorter of the two, and was still traveled in cases of emergency, although to do so at speed and in the dark was hazardous. Wade's promise to Dorothy to take good care of himself had been made with mental reservation, for, obsessed by his anxiety over Santry, the young ranchman was in no mood to spare either himself or his horse. His going was marked by a constant shower of stones, sometimes behind him, as the wily cayuse, climbed like a mountain goat; but as often in front, as horse and rider coasted perilously down some declivity. The horse sweated and trembled with nervousness, as a frightened child might, but never refused to attempt what its master demanded of it. One might almost say that there existed a human understanding between man and beast as to the importance of their errand; a common pulse, which urged them onward.

When Wade reflected that Dorothy too, had come over that trail by night in his interest, he thought her more than ever a wonderful girl. Even to one-born and raised in the cattle country, the trip would have been difficult; but then he realized that Dorothy seemed much like a ranch-bred girl in her courage and frank womanliness, nor was she any less charming on that account. After all, he thought, women paid too highly for little accomplishments, if to gain them they had to sacrifice the vital points of character. He could not help but contrast Helen's insistence that she should be escorted back to the hotel with Dorothy's brave ride alone, and while he was too loyal to Helen Rexhill to blame her in this respect, the thing made a deep impression upon him.

The way was long, and he had time for many thoughts. It was natural in the still night, with Dorothy only a little while gone, that he should think tenderly of her for this cost Santry nothing. For Santry, Wade was reserving not thought but action. He was making a brave ride alone, Moran had taken the foreman into custody on a trumped up charge of murder, the authorities were in the power of a greater tribunal than any court in the locality—the law of the strong arm. Wade was not a lawyer, but the ranchman knew, was the whole of the cattle faction, and since war had been thrust upon him, he was not stop until the end came, wherever it might be. His conscience was clean, for he had carried himself fully in the peace of peace, even to the point where his own character had

YOUNG DAUGHTER MADE WELL

Mother Tells How Her Daughter Suffered and Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vancouver, B.C.—"My daughter is a young girl who has been having severe pains and weak and dizzy feelings for some time and has lost her appetite. Through an older daughter who had heard of a woman who was taking it for the same trouble, we were told that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My daughter has been taking it for several months and is all right now. It has done all it was represented to do and we have told a number of friends about it. I can never without a bottle of it in the house, for I myself take it for that weak, tired, worried feeling which sometimes comes to us all. I find it is building me up and I strongly recommend it to women who are suffering as I and my daughter have."—Mrs. J. McDonald, 2347 26th Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C.

From the age of twelve a girl needs all the care a thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her in her time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her by giving her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions.

suffered, and now the hour of tragedy was at hand.

He rode, at last, over the top of the Divide and into the little draw that led up to the ranch buildings in the windows of which lights gleamed. With an impetuous slight of mind, he tied his horse to a post, and, revolver in hand, crept toward the house as quietly as a shadow.

Except for the light, there was no sign of life about the place, and Wade craftily advanced into the deeper shadows close to the wall of the house. Taking off his hat, so that the crown might not betray him, he peeped through a window. What he saw made him clench his fingers and grit his teeth in rage.

Inside were half a dozen men, besides three of his own ranch hands who lay trussed up like turkeys in one corner of the room; doubtless they had been surprised by the posse before they had opportunity to run or put up a fight. Moran was there, stretched comfortably on Wade's own cot, smoking a cigar. Once, he looked directly toward the window at which the watcher had placed himself but the latter did not move. Instead he fingered his gun and waited; he was not sure that he really wanted to avoid detection; if it came, Moran would pay, and the rest of the moment, did not seem to matter. He had forgotten Dorothy entirely.

But Santry was not there and this fact puzzled Wade. The Sheriff was not there either, and presently it occurred to the cattleman that a part of the posse, with Santry, might have returned to Crawling Water over the main trail. Probably Moran, with the rest, was waiting for him. The mere thought of Santry already on his way to jail filled Wade with a bad sense of rage, and creeping from the house, he examined the surrounding air by the faint rays of the moon. It was badly cut up by the feet of many horses, and several minutes passed before Wade was really sure that a number of mounted men had taken the trail back to town. Satisfied of this at length, he untied his horse and swung into the saddle.

Before riding away he considered the advisability of driving off the horses belonging to Moran's party, but there would still be others in the corral, and besides their absence, when discovered, would give warning of the impending attack. On second thought, however, he quietly made his way to the corral and caught a fresh horse of his own. When he had saddled it he set out over the old trail for the big pine.

When he reached the rendezvous his men were not there; but knowing that he must meet them if he followed the road from there on he did not stop. He came upon them in a few minutes, riding toward him at full speed, with Tim Sullivan in the van, too drunk to stand erect, but able to balance himself on a horse's back, drunk or sober.

"We come across Santry and the Sheriff a while back," cried Big Bob Lawson, one of Wade's own ranchmen. "They must be in town by now. We was nine to light into 'em, but Santry wouldn't hear of it. Course, we took our orders from him same as usual. He said to tell you that you wanted to keep quiet, an' that's what he aimed to do."

"He said we wasn't to tell you that he didn't shoot them Swedes," put in another of the men.

"What?" Wade demanded sharply.

"He said—hic!" broke in Tim Sullivan, with drunken gravity. "He said—hic!—that if you didn't know that without—hic!—beln! told, you wasn't no friend of his'n, an'—hic!—you could go to hell."

"Sharp; you drunken fool!" Lawson snapped out.

"Jensen and his herder were shot in the back, they say. That clears Santry," Wade declared, and sat for some moments in deep thought, while the men waited as patiently as they could.

"Lawson," he said, at last, "You're in charge for the night. Take the boys to the big pine and camp there quietly until I come back. I'm going home."

"Hadin' you better take us with you, boss. We'll stick. We're for you and Santry an' agin' these sheepherders, whenever you say the word."

"That's—hic—what we are!" Sullivan hiccoughed.

Wade shook his head.

The Belgian Congo

Practically One-Third as Large as United States

Almost everybody has a general idea of the location of the Belgian Congo, although many do not realize that it is practically one-third as large as the United States, including Alaska. In detail, if its southwestern corner were placed at San Diego, Cal., the southern boundary would roughly correspond with the Mexican border, and the southeastern corner would fall at the southern point of Texas. Forming a rough square, its northeastern corner would lie in the neighborhood of Des Moines, Iowa, and its northwestern corner in the Yellowstone Park. The Belgian Congo has been called the Brazil of Africa, and has flowing through it corresponding to the Amazon in Brazil, the Congo, one of the world's greatest rivers, capable of carrying an empire's commerce. The average width of this river, by the way, is five miles for about half of its length of some 3,000 miles, and in places it runs to as much as sixteen miles.—Christian Science Monitor.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels, and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love its "fruity" taste, and mothers can rest easy because it never fails to work all the souring food and nasty bile right out of the stomach and bowels without gripping or upsetting the child.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

Conditions in the West

Difficulties Which Confront the Agriculturist Today

I shall not elaborate at any great length on conditions in the west. The hon. leader of this group who has preceded me has, I think, done full justice to that subject. We do not like to appear in the position of being calamity howlers, but perhaps an other illustration, and again a personal one, for which I make apologies, will show the condition of things better perhaps than anything else can do. In the year 1912 I bought a wagon for use on the farm and it cost me $78 cash. It was a fully equipped farm wagon with a three-keel box—a type familiar to gentlemen from the prairies. My crop, if I remember aright, I sold for 70 cents a bushel. Now remember—$78 for a wagon and wheat selling at 70 cents a bushel! Last fall I found that I needed a wagon box to put on this same wagon, the old one having become useless in the meantime. I paid $67 for the box alone, and for my wheat I got 75 cents a bushel net. Now I think these figures will show you that the thing which is confronting the agriculturist today is the fact that the old equilibrium between the price he received for his products and the price of the articles he bought for carrying on his work has not been restored. Illustrations of that kind might be multiplied indefinitely, but I think one is sufficient.—R. A. Hoey (Springfield).

What the Spider Indicated

Getting a Line on a Good Quiet Place in Which to Spin His Web

When Mark Twain, in his early days, was editor of a Missouri paper, a superstitious subscriber wrote to him saying that he had found a spider in his paper, and asking him whether that was a sign of good luck or bad. The humorist wrote him this answer and printed it:

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good luck nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

From End to End of Canada Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Doing Good Work

There is not a nook or corner in Canada, in the cities, towns, villages and on the farms, where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not been used and from one end of the country to the other people sound their praise. You have only to ask your neighbors and they can tell you of some run down man, suffering woman, ailing youth or unhappy anemic girl who owes their present health and strength to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The success of this medicine is due to the fact that it acts directly upon the blood, making it rich and pure, and thus brings new strength to every organ and nerve in the body. Mr. Andrew P. Webb, Melancon, N.S., tells what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for him as follows: "I was in a run down condition from overwork and what the doctor called a nervous breakdown. My sister urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking several boxes I improved wonderfully and feel like a different person. I sleep well, eat well, and my nerves are stronger and with confidence I can recommend these pills to all weak, run down people."

If you are suffering from any condition due to poor, watery blood, weak nerves begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now and note how your strength and health will improve. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or they will be sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Record of Business Gives Demonstration of Stability of the Company

The financial statement of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada for the year 1922, published this week, must be regarded as highly satisfactory from every measure of progress and prosperity. Its items, relating both to development and strength, show striking advances over previous records, especially those in connection with total business in force and assets, indicating that a policy of large-scale expansion has been accompanied by prudent and economical management.

After allowing for cancellations, death and maturity claims, etc., assurances in force reach a total of $621,404,869, this being by far the greatest amount outstanding on the books of any Canadian Life Company. This figure represents an increase of $94,686,738, the greatest advance ever recorded by the Company in a twelve-month period. Another notable item is that relating to cash income from premiums, interest, etc., which reaches a new high-water mark of $36,261,323, representing an increase of $5,144,172 over the year 1921.

The assets record, an increase of $14,716,726, and now reach the great total of $174,988,458. * This is a splendid demonstration of the stability of the Company, which after assessing its liabilities on a basis appreciably higher than required by the Government standard of valuation, making substantial allowances for investment fluctuations and other contingencies, and providing for Capital Stock, shows a surplus of $14,269,420. This item represents an advance of $3,885,511 within the year. The average interest rate earned was 6.27 per cent, indicating that investments have been selected with care and foresight.

Large Roman Baths

Much Water Was Required to Keep Old Roman Baths Supplied

It is said that ancient Rome consumed no less than 340,000,000 gallons of water a day, and a most noticeable feature of the modern city is the practical effacement of its water, passing from fountains of every conceivable size and design.

The old Roman baths required much water. Last year 2,113 men and 563 boats were employed in the Manitoba fresh water fisheries, with an equipment valued at $659,414. Valuable Recipes For the Busy Housewife

Sun-Maid Filling
2 cups chopped Sun-Maid raisins.
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup boiling water.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Cook raisins, sugar and water until thick enough to spread. Add lemon juice and spread while hot between layers of cake.

Cream Puffs

1 cup washed butter, 2 cups flour.
2 cups boiling water, 6 eggs.
Place butter and boiling water in a saucepan, bring to a boil and add all at once the flour. Stir until it forms a ball that will not stick to the sides of the pan. Place the cooked paste in a bowl and beat in, one at a time, the eggs. With a teaspoon place the mixture in little balls on buttered pans, two inches apart. Bake 20 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven. When cool cut a small slit in the side and fill with whipped cream mixed with needless Sun-Maid raisins, or chocolate filling with raisins. Dip top in white frosting. For the chocolate filling: Add to one and a half cups of scalded milk, half a cup of flour mixed to a smooth paste with half a cup of cold milk. Place in a double boiler and cook 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Beat the yolks of four eggs with one cup of sugar and a quarter teaspoon salt and stir into the hot mixture. Add two squares of melted chocolate and one tablespoon of butter; cook until well bleached, remove from fire, cool and flavor with vanilla or almond.

No Doles For Loafers

Mistaken Impression as to Public Charity Work in Britain

The idea that the British Government makes a distribution to every one who cannot find a job just to the individual's taste or paying satisfactory wages, has been a factor in organized demands for hand outs upon both Federal and Provincial Governments in this country and has been largely responsible for such organizations as the Unemployed Councils on Ottawa and the National Association of Unemployed organized at Winnipeg.

But the idea that the British Government hands out doles to those who cannot find employment is made from the fact, as was emphasized by Sir Robert Horne, former Chancellor of the Exchequer, in his address before the Empire Club of Toronto recently.

The distribution made to those who cannot find employment is made from a fund, to which the workers themselves as well as the employers and the Government contribute. Thus the workers as well as the employers are interested in seeing that only bona fide claims are paid.—From the Financial Post.

The doctor says that his rather unusual that a newly-married man should be suffering from shoulder dislocation.

The regular meeting of Crows' Nest Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held in the Greenhill Hotel parlor on Tuesday, March the 6th at 7.30 p.m.

The interest charge on Canada's national debt now amounts to 43 dollars a second. So, get a hustle on, there's not a second to lose.

The hockey girls are now singing: "Oh where are our wandering boys tonight?" Probably down in the John L. Sullivan cabaret, girls.

Mrs. Arthur Smith was in Lethbridge last week end visiting her son Norman, who has undergone a critical operation in the Galt hospital.

J. N. Rowell, former general merchant in the live days of Passburg and now a resident of Wapella, Saskatchewan, was a visitor here this week and is looking well.

The largest iron ore mines in the world, located at Bell Island, Newfoundland, recently closed down indefinitely, throwing thousands of men out of employment.

Harry H. Fitzsimmons, who is partly responsible for the provision of ways and means whereby a publication named Square Shooter is made possible at Lethbridge, is sizing up The Pass this week.

Chicago Oddfellows are preparing to erect the largest building in the world. It will be known as Fraternity Hall, will cover 43,000 square feet of ground, be 34 stories high and cost three million dollars.

A meeting of operators and representatives of miners is being held at Calgary this week, at which it is expected a tentative agreement for extension of present contract till fall will be reached.

Business malnutrition may sound odd, but your business isn't properly nourished if it isn't properly advertised. Put "pep," which means health and vigor into your business; by advertising—telling about it in the paper.

An exchange says: "The friends of Capt. Chas. Kerr, formerly of Lethbridge and Frank Sanatorium, will be interested to know that he recently became a happy father. A daughter, Aloysia McDonald, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, in Buffalo, N. Y., on February 16th."

No one can have respect for a police officer who will make use of a stiff fistic jab at the chest of a respectable citizen when a peaceful word would have had the desired effect. This act was performed at the arena on Monday night in plain view of scores of citizens, many of whom expressed disgust at the uncalculated for action of a supposed-to-be peace officer, and was performed on a visitor from another part of the province who had been accustomed to taking the shortest course to the exit from the rink not knowing that such was prohibitive here.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

A regular monthly meeting of the Blairmore School trustees was held at the school house on Friday night last, attended by Chairman Dutil and members A. Hamilton, J. McPhail and W. McVey.

The minutes of last previous meeting and of an adjourned meeting were read and approved and the following accounts were passed for payment: Christie Supply Co. $219.75, Workmen's Compensation Board $4.40, Blairmore Hardware Co. $3.40, West Canadian Coaleries (for coal) $102.50 and Blairmore Enterprise $76.50.

Moved by Hamilton, that Secretary communicate with Principal Stevenson, of Pincher Creek, asking whether he would act as presiding examiner here for the June exams, as to fee, etc. Carried.

Moved by McVey, that secretary take immediate steps to collect the 1923 educational poll tax.

Insurance covering equipment of the West Ward School ($800) and part of equipment of Central School ($2,000) was authorized.

The board received announcement of result of recent election, declaring Mrs. P. M. Christophers and Augustus Howe elected, and W. H. Chappell re-elected to the board. The question arose as to the qualification of Mrs. Christophers to act on the board. It was shown that while the name of P. M. Christophers appeared on the assessment roll in respect to two lots in the town, taxes on said lots had not been paid in full to last year. Should there be any question as to the qualification of any member of the board it may nullify any business transacted upon which such member may have voted.

This was the final meeting of the old board and the newly-constituted board will take office in March.

WHY BABIES CRY

It's often hard to find the trouble. It may be with it may be stomach—but oh! so often it is just a chafed irritated skin on which poor Soap has been used.

The remedy for this is so simple! Hours of suffering—night after night of disturbance—have been avoided by mothers, who have insisted on—Baby's Own Soap. Of course it costs a little more, a very little more, however, than what is often bought and used—but four generations of Canadian Mothers are there to vouch for its purity, for the soothing healing effect on Baby's delicate skin, for the lovely pure flower fragrance it leaves when Baby fresh and clean is taken from his bath.

Don't you think, Madam, it's worth paying the like a cake, a little less if you buy a box (8 cakes) which your dealer asks for Baby's Own Soap. Adv.

METHODIST CONCERT

STAGED AT HILLCREST

Calgary Albertan says that the local hockey team are a good bunch of husky athletes and well picked to play for the Allan Cup. But who knows that better than local fans?

The Blairmore hockey boys have lots of support from the Crow anyway. Bellevue sent up a few fans on Monday night who rooted for Calgary and Coleman sports bet their money on Calgary in Tuesday's game.
